

Disclosure log of access applications

The disclosure log records a summary of information the Commission has released in response to formal access applications, as required by the Government Information (Public Access) Act 1989.

Date application was decided	Description of information provided	Whether information is available to access now	How it can be accessed
18 March 2010	Notes from the Silviculture Workshop on the assessment of river red gum forests (NRC documents D09/3839 and D09/3840)	Yes	Contact Right to Information Officer.